

Welcome to PBCC

We are glad you joined us today!

We gather in worship to remind ourselves who God is, what he has done in Christ and what he is doing through his Spirit. Our desire is to praise God and receive afresh his Spirit in us, to affirm that we are family reconciled one to another and to be empowered to reach out to the world.

If you are a Newcomer, please fill out the information card found in the pew rack and drop it in the offering plate so we can get acquainted with you. Along with our pastors, elders and greeters, the volunteers in the Information Booth are available to answer questions and help with whatever you need. For PBCC news and updates, subscribe to our weekly e-newsletter at pbcc.org.

We encourage involvement in small groups for walking through life together, helping each other make Jesus Lord of life. For information on our various groups, contact Shawn@pbcc.org or Sharon@pbcc.org.

and I have been saved from my enemies.

Sermon Notes: Joshua 20-21

All God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Men Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way,
though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble at its swelling.

Women There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.
God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
God will help her when morning dawns.

Men The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

All The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Women Come, behold the works of the LORD,
how he has brought desolations on the earth.

Men He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
he burns the chariots with fire.

Women Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!

All The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.
