Luke 15:11-32—The Prodigal Son
Ryan Hinn

Context:

We all have read this passage many times I am sure. The character and spiritual traits as: mercy, grace, forgiveness, fairness, getting what one deserves and being responsible come to surface. The sense of being loved for who you are vs. what you do may come to your mind.

Incredible text. I hope you learn more about each other and our Lord when going through these questions.

Questions:

1. What did Ryan communicate on this passage that stuck with you the most?
2. What maybe did you want to debate?
3. What parallels do you see between the Father and the sons and God and you?
4. How do you respond when you see people get what they deserve? Or not get what they deserve?
 - a. What does this teach us about our core needs?
 - b. How important is it to you for things to be fair? In your marriage? Work? Friendships?
5. V. 31 is an incredible statement..."all that is mine is yours."
 - a. What does "all " mean?
 - b. Is "all that is mine" enough for you?
